

SEQUOIA UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Telecommunications-Use Agreement
Student Electronic Information Resource Agreement

“Technology” as used in these policies includes stand-alone computer systems, network systems, e-mail, Internet, library systems, VCRs, TVs, fax machines, laser diskettes, CD-ROMs, printers, software, files, configurations, and all other electronic systems that receive, transmit, store, display, or use information.

Acceptable Use and User Obligations and Responsibilities

All technologies are to be used in a responsible, efficient, ethical and legal manner. All use must be for educational use in line with district goals. The use of technologies is a privilege and not a right. Inappropriate use can result in loss of privileges, disciplinary actions, fines, and/or referral to legal authorities. School officials have the right to view all technologies, information and files, and all material on any system or diskette.

Students are authorized to use the technologies in accordance with user obligations specified below.

1. Students shall not install, remove, update or modify any software configurations or hardware without proper approval.
2. Students shall not run any of their own technologies on any school system without proper approval.
3. Students shall not vandalize or attempt to vandalize any technologies. This includes but is not limited to physical damage, viruses and any modifications to the technologies.
4. Students shall not use any technology in a manner which could be perceived as threatening, obscene, disruptive, unethical or construed as harassment or disparagement of others.
5. Students shall not violate any copyright laws. (This includes software, information and graphics.)
6. Students shall use technologies only for educational purposes that are in line with district educational goals. Personal, commercial and/or political use is strictly prohibited.
7. A student shall not attempt to view, read, interfere with, delete, copy, modify or forge anyone else’s technologies.

Please return the bottom portion of this form to your school IVP office.
